

I am Arthur Belas, the father of James and I wish to express my deep appreciation and thanks to all who in one way or another contributed to help find James. and in behalf of my family I thank you all so much. My family miss him and am sure his many friends, relatives, and the many people he has touched, loved and helped will find him too. My special thank you to the anonymous donor who published in the Midland Courier of James disappearance. Also to the governors, mayors, TV and radio stations who offered their time and efforts to locate James.

During his elementary days, he has been a constant honor pupil, and after high school at U.P. Baguio, he topped the National College Entrance Exam, and maintained his scholarship from the government at U.P. Baguio from secondary to College.

~~From~~ With his vast knowledge, we hope & pray that he will not be harmed and be set free as soonest, so he will continue his work for the upliftment of the lives of the Cordillerans. James is the eldest among my four children and is single. Devoting his life & dedication in research work to save the Culture & Tradition of the Igorots. James' mom is bedridden, afflicted with testophrosis and Alzheimer's disease. She dearly needs the love & care of James. So I humbly pray to those who got James to please be compassionate and release him in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ. God Bless!

P.S.:

To the populace of the University of the Philippines Baguio! Thank you for your unremitting support in the search of James! Thank you, thank U
