2018 Board Candidate Statement

Candidate: Juliet Woodfield
Nominator: Brian Radburn

My name is Juliet Woodfield and seeking the position of Treasurer at Amnesty International Canada. I am a Chartered Professional Accountant with 25+ years of financial management experience including financial reporting, financial management, auditing, and internal controls. I have worked in a number of various different types of organizations and am currently the Vice-President, Finance and Human Resources, and Chief Financial Officer at Defence Construction Canada, a federal crown corporation located in Ottawa. I am passionate about human rights, and in particular human rights for girls and women. I would like to bring this passion and professional experience to help contribute to the improvement of human rights both here at Canada and around the world. I currently am the Secretary Treasurer for the Immigrant Women's Services of Ottawa and would like to contribute to Amnesty International Canada in the same capacity. Thank you greatly for your consideration.
