

ECUADOR: Protect Amazonian Women

Attorney General Diana Salazar, Fiscalia Ecuador

Please submit completed petitions to:

Amnesty International Canada, 1992 Yonge St., Toronto, ON M4S 1Z7

Amazonian Women protect the world's largest rainforest from environmental damage caused by extractive industries in Indigenous territories. Their work is vital to the survival of hundreds of Indigenous communities. Women leaders and their families face death threats and attacks in retaliation.

Please ACT WITHOUT DELAY to protect Indigenous women environmental rights defenders:

• Advance effective investigations of the attacks and threats against Patricia Gualinga, Nema Grefa, Salomé Aranda and Margoth Escobar, ensuring that the perpetrators are brought to justice.
