

COLOMBIA: STOP THE KILLINGS

To Iván Duque, President of Colombia:

Hundreds of community leaders & human rights defenders have been assassinated in Colombia since peace accords were signed in 2016. Many more face threats of attack. At extreme risk are those defending the environmental human rights of Indigenous peoples and Afro-descendant communities. This must end!

We call on you to ensure:

- Effective protection to leaders of Indigenous peoples, Afro-Colombians & other communities defending territory & natural resources or seeking the return of stolen lands.
- Full, impartial investigation of all attacks in order to bring the perpetrators to justice.
