

Abdulhamit Gül, Minister of Justice

Human rights defenders, including Amnesty's Turkey Director İdil Eser, and its Chair, Taner Kılıç are imprisoned in Turkey, simply for standing up for human rights.

Taner Kılıç, İdil Eser and nine other human rights defenders have not done anything wrong. They are imprisoned or are being investigated for their human rights activities. The accusations against them are ridiculous and baseless. Every day they are detained, the people they spoke up for are left more vulnerable.

Turkey has jailed these people just like they have jailed hundreds of journalists. Human rights defenders are not dangerous.

- I call on you to immediately and unconditionally release the human rights defenders and drop the baseless investigation against them
